

Senator Brad Avakian, Senate District 17

Counties Served: Multnomah and Washington

Oregon
Cultural Trust

Multnomah County

Multnomah County Cultural Coalition, FY06 Cultural Participation Grant, $41,274

Multnomah County Cultural Coalition, FY07 Cultural Participation Grant, $33,810

Washington County

Washington County Arts, Heritage and Humanities Coalition, FY06 Cultural Participation Grant, $30,394

Washington County Arts, Heritage and Humanities Coalition, FY07 Cultural Participation Grant, $25,368

Portland

Friends of Chamber Music, $4,000

FY07 Cultural Development Grant: To support the inaugural season of a new Vocal Arts Series. The series will bring three world-class artists/ensembles to the Portland metropolitan area for four concerts. Scheduled performers include internationally renowned soprano Dawn Upshaw, Baroque soprano Julianne Baird, and the premier male vocal ensemble Chanticleer. Three associated outreach activities will include master classes, workshops and vocal arts appreciation classes.

Contact: Pat Zagelow, 503-224-9842, pat@focm.org

Literary Arts Inc., $9,000

FY06 Cultural Development Grant: To support the 19th annual Oregon Book Awards & Author Tour, recognizing outstanding writing by Oregon authors in the fields of poetry, novel, short fiction, nonfiction, children's literature, and drama. Selected winners and runners-up will participate in a reading tour of their works visiting Baker City, Bend, Burns, Eugene, Klamath Falls, La Grande, North Bend and Roseburg.

Contact: Kristin Loebbecke, 503-227-2583, kirstin@literary-arts.org

Literary Arts Inc., $15,000

FY07 Cultural Development Grant: To support the 20th annual Oregon Book Awards and Author Tour, recognizing outstanding writing by Oregon authors in the fields of poetry, novel, short fiction, nonfiction, children's literature, and drama at a public celebration. Winners and finalists will participate in a reading tour, visiting Astoria, Baker City, Bend, Burns, Klamath Falls, La Grande, North Bend, Roseburg, and Salem. The ceremony, author tour, and additional promotional efforts build an audience for local writing and publishing, create connections between writers and readers statewide, and preserve our state's literary heritage and culture.

Contact: Kristin Loebbecke, 503-227-2583, kirstin@literary-arts.org

Oregon Nikkei Endowment/Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center, $4,000

FY07 Cultural Development Grant: To support Nihonmachi: Portland's Japantown Remembered. Funds for this project will help provide for staffing of a collections manager and exhibit developer to help document and create this project. Staff will assist in preserving the history and culture of Portland's Japantown by creating an organized, searchable information system that will be available to the public. The project will culminate in a new exhibit about Japantown businesses in Portland, and also include educational programs and training resources for volunteers.

Contact: June Arima Schumann, 503-224-1458, onlc@oregonnikkei.org

Pacific Railroad Preservation Association, $4,000

FY07 Cultural Development Grant: To support the preservation and rehabilitation of a steam locomotive auxiliary water tender, a steam era "rolling water tower" with 17,000 gallon capacity. Once restored, this surplus unit, scrapped from a Great Northern steam locomotive will allow the Association's historic Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway #700 steam locomotive to double its travel capacity to 200 miles and allow more public access to this historic engine.

Contact: Matt Baccitich, 503-283-3444, prpaweb@sps700.org

Portland Classical Chinese Garden, $15,000

FY06 Cultural Development Grant: To support the East Meets West Program through the hiring of a Cultural Education Director for the garden, one of only four traditional Chinese gardens in the US. This position will oversee the cultural authenticity of the Garden's programs, provide staff training, and create a Cultural Heritage Outreach Program. The director will also facilitate educational and cultural exchanges with Portland's sister city of Suzhou, China.

Contact: Kim Kono, 503-228-8131, info@portlandchinesegarden.org

Portland Institute for Contemporary Art (PICA), $20,000

FY06 Cultural Development Grant: To support the Time Based Art Festival, a ten-day event located in diverse performance and non-traditional venues throughout Downtown and Northwest Portland. This festival features local, national, and international artists working in contemporary dance, theatre, music, film, and multimedia forms.

Contact: Luisa Guyer, 503-242-1419, luisa@pica.org

Portland Institute for Contemporary Art (PICA), $15,000

FY07 Cultural Development Grant: To support PICA's Time-Based Art Festival, an eleven-day event located in multiple public and private venues throughout east and west Portland featuring local national and international artists working in the disciplines of contemporary dance, theatre, music, film and multimedia performance. In addition, 2006 will be the first year that PICA will partner with educational and cultural partners to feature visual exhibitions throughout the city.

Contact: Luisa Guyer, 503-242-1419, luisa@pica.org

Regional Arts & Culture Council (RACC), $6,000

FY07 Cultural Development Grant: To support RACC's partnership with NW Business for Culture and the Arts to stimulate workplace giving contributions for over 75 arts and culture organizations in the tri-county area and to educate Oregon employees about the importance of art and culture in community. Funds will bring artists of diverse genres and backgrounds into companies throughout Washington, Clackamas and Multnomah counties to engage employees in participatory arts activities during working hours and will encourage them to participate in the Work for Art giving program.

Contact: Kathryn Jackson, 503-823-5402, kjackson@racc.org

Washington County Historical Society, $4,000

FY06 Cultural Development Grant: To support the creation of an exhibit highlighting the history of the Willamette Valley Tribe of Kalapuya Indians, that will become the Museum's signature exhibit in its newly expanded and renovated exhibit gallery to open in 2006. A smaller version of this exhibit will also be created to travel throughout the county, and an accompanying educational program for school and tour groups will be developed.

Contact: Mark Granlund, 503-645-5353, Calcagno@wccls.lib.or.us

OREGON ARTS
COMMISSION

Beaverton

Beaverton Arts Commission, $4,000

FY06 Arts Services Grant: To support a portion of the professional development services offered to local artists, including lectures, portfolio reviews, and the facilitation of collaborations between local businesses and artists.

Contact: Jayne Scott, 503-526-2288, jscott@ci.beaverton.or.us

Beaverton Arts Commission, $3,000

FY07 Arts Services Grant: To support the Commission's programs and its role to build a sense of community through the arts within Beaverton; to address diversity and ethnicity; and to assist the growing community to maintain its sense of place and identity. Art Commission funds will be used to fund part of the organization's arts information and advocacy services and professional development opportunities for artists.

Contact: Jayne Scott, 503-526-2288, jscott@ci.beaverton.or.us

Portland

3D Center of Art and Photography, $1,000

FY06 Arts Recognition Grant: In recognition of the unique mission of this club which has been educating the public in the principles, aesthetics and history of 3D imagery, stereoscopic photography and illustrations for over ten years.

Contact: Diane E. Rulien, 503-227-6667, director@3dcenter.us

Caldera, $8,000

FY06 Arts Education Grant: To support artist residencies in schools attended by youth who have attended Caldera arts retreats and will include performances, exhibitions and workshops in 16 Oregon middle and high schools. Funds will also support professional development workshops.

Contact: Tricia Furnari, 503-937-7599, tricia.furnari@wk.com

Caldera, $7,000

FY07 Arts Learning Grant: To support artist residences in 10 middle schools; 5 in Portland and 5 in Central Oregon as well as year-round mentoring for Caldera's core group of 160 at-risk middle and high school students.

Contact: Tricia Furnari, 503-937-7599, tricia.furnari@wk.com

Friends of Chamber Music, $3,500

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support Friends of Chamber Music's 15 concerts and eight educational activities during the 2005 season, benefiting an estimated 8,900 people.

Contact: Pat Zagelow, 503-224-9842, pat@focm.org

Friends of Chamber Music, $3,000

FY07 Operating Support Grant: To support Friends of Chamber Music's 17 concerts and six to eight educational activities during the 2006 season, benefiting an estimated 9,000 people.

Contact: Pat Zagelow, 503-224-9842, pat@focm.org

Children's Healing Art Project (CHAP), $4,500

FY07 Arts Build Communities Grant: To support the Saturday ART CLUB, which allows children and families affected by major a health crisis, diagnosis, or disability to use the power of art to help heal. The artwork created by the children will be displayed in galleries and public venues to reduce the stigma of disability and disease.

Contact: Frank Etxaniz, 503-243-5294, frank@chap.name

Cinema Project, $1,000

FY06 Arts Recognition Grant: In recognition of the work this young organization has done in promoting film and video art from the past to the present. They work collaboratively to encourage the growth of a strong film and video community in Portland, to help establish it as a key city in media arts.

Contact: Pablo Miguel de Ocampo, 503-232-8269, info@cinemaproject.org

CoHo Productions Ltd, $2,000

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support the collaborative model of co-production in theatre arts, fostering artistic excellence in the Portland metropolitan area.

Contact: Liane Hilling Shah, 503-220-2646, admin@cohoproductions.org

Columbia Symphony Orchestra, $3,000

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support the orchestra's season of five concerts in the intimate, affordable and accessible venue of Portland's First United Methodist Church.

Contact: Betsy Hatton, 503-234-4077, csopacifier.com

Columbia Symphony Orchestra, $3,000

FY07 Operating Support Grant: To support the orchestra's season of five concerts in the intimate venue of Portland's First United Methodist Church.

Contact: Betsy Hatton, 503-234-4077, csopacifier.com

Kenneth Dixon, FY07 Artist Fellowship Grant, $3,000

Literary Arts Inc., $8,000

FY06 Arts Education Grant: To support general operating expenses including writers' fees for writers in residence, mentorships, author school visits, student-created books, and professional development for teachers.

Contact: Elizabeth Burnett, 503-227-2583, elizabeth@literary-arts.org

Literary Arts Inc., $10,000

FY07 Arts Learning Grant: Support for writer residencies in schools, students mentorships, books for classrooms and libraries, student readings, publication of a student anthology, writer training, and professional development activities for teachers.

Contact: Elizabeth Burnett, 503-227-2583, elizabeth@literary-arts.org

Literary Arts Inc., $12,000

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support core programs for emerging and established writers and readers of all ages, including: Portland Arts & Lectures, The Oregon Book Awards, Oregon Literary Fellowships, Writers in the Schools and Poetry in Motion.

Contact: Elizabeth Burnett, 503-227-2583, elizabeth@literary-arts.org

Literary Arts Inc., $13,000

FY07 Operating Support Grant: To support core programs for emerging and established writers and readers of all ages, including: Portland Arts & Lectures, The Oregon Book Awards, Oregon Literary Fellowships, Writers in the Schools and Poetry in Motion.

Contact: Elizabeth Burnett, 503-227-2583, elizabeth@literary-arts.org

Metropolitan Learning Center, FY06 Poetry Out Loud Grant, $300

Northwest Business for Culture & the Arts (NWBCA), $1,000

FY06 Arts Recognition Grant: In recognition of 20 years of support of the arts and culture through a well-organized affiliation of businesses. Through peer-to-peer advocacy, training of volunteer board members for non-profit arts organizations and sponsorship of highly visible summits in support of the arts, the NWBCA is a vital member of the arts and culture community.

Contact: Virginia Willard, 503-228-2977, virginia@nwbca.org

Northwest Children's Theater & School, $3,500

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support the education, outreach of the theatre arts training school, as well as the production of five main stage shows, serving over 575,000 adults and children.

Contact: Judy Kafoury, 503-222-2190, judy@nwcts.org

Northwest Children's Theater & School, $4,000

FY07 Arts Learning Grant: To support outreach programs to Title I schools in the Portland-metro area through in-school artists-in-residence, out-of-school programs (field trips, summer camps, classes), and Educator Guides.

Contact: Judy Kafoury, 503-222-2190, judy@nwcts.org

Northwest Print Council, $1,000

FY06 Arts Recognition Grant: In recognition of the 25 years of support to the contemporary fine art printmakers in the Northwest, the Northwest Print Council provides promotion of printmaking and the collection of original prints. In their new prominent Pearl location, there has been a significant increase in visibility, increased sales and twelve exhibitions in the past year.

Contact: Jill McElroy, 503-525-9259, pan@printartsnw.org

ORLO, $1,000

FY06 Arts Recognition Grant: In recognition of over 10 years of the innovative, independent use of the creative arts to explore environmental issues. ORLO presents to its audiences through thoughtful, highly engaging arts programming, the award winning Bear Deluxe Magazine.

Contact: Tom Webb, 503-242-1047, bear@orlo.org

Oregon College of Art & Craft, $8,000

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support the educational programming, artist in residence program and public lecture series of this institution, which teaches art through craft.

Contact: Barb Audiss, 503-297-5544, admissions@ocac.edu

Pacific Northwest College of Art, $7,000

FY07 Operating Support Grant: To support educational resources for students, engaging exhibitions and public programming for over 6,000 visitors each year, and youth outreach.

Contact: Rebecca Biggs, 503-758-7133, becca@pnca.edu

Portland Art Center, $1,000

FY06 Arts Recognition Grant: In recognition of the Portland Art Center, a community-based nonprofit gallery and performance space and its efforts to build relations with its board members and current patrons.

Contact: Gavin Shettler, 503-239-5481, gavin@portlandart.org

Portland Art Center, $1,000

FY07 Arts Recognition Grant: In recognition of the Portland Art Center's work that connects northwest artists and the community through multi-discipline programming, a public resource center and exhibit space in a new facility located in Old Town Portland.

Contact: Judy Kafoury, 503-222-2190, judy@nwcts.org

Portland Gay Men's Chorus, $1,000

FY06 Arts Recognition Grant: In recognition of its 26 season of choral art through eclectic performances that honor, uplift and affirm the dignity and worth of all people. The Portland Gay Men's Chorus has helped revive choral arts in America by commissioning and composing new works and consistently performing music of exceptional quality.

Contact: H. Dwayne Davis, 503-226-2588, vaarin@juno.com

Portland Institute for Contemporary Art (PICA), $10,000

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support PICA's annual time-based Art Festival, a visual arts program, an artist residency program and education and outreach activities, all benefiting nearly 20,000.

Contact: Luisa Adrianzen Guyer, 503-242-1419, luisa@pica.org

Portland Institute for Contemporary Art (PICA), $10,000

FY07 Operating Support Grant: To support PICA's annual time-based Art Festival, a visual arts program, an artist residency program and education and outreach activities, all benefiting nearly 30,000.

Contact: Luisa Adrianzen Guyer, 503-242-1419, luisa@pica.org

Portland Piano International, $4,000

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support a series of 15 recitals and a summer festival including over 15 educational activities benefiting over 8,000 people.

Contact: Pat Zagelow, 503-228-1388, pat@portlandpiano.org

Portland Piano International, $3,500

FY07 Operating Support Grant: To support a series of 15 recitals and a summer festival including over 15 educational activities benefiting over 9,500 people.

Contact: Pat Zagelow, 503-228-1388, pat@portlandpiano.org

Portland Symphonic Girlchoir, $2,000

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support the ongoing challenging and comprehensive choral music education program for girls, as well as the commissioning of significant new works. The programming reaches 250 students and 12,000 audience members in the Portland Metro area.

Contact: Julane Jenison, 503-226-6162, singer@girlchoir.com

Regional Arts & Culture Council (RACC), $14,000

FY06 Arts Services Grant: To support arts services for approximately 2,000 artists and 75 arts organizations in Clackamas, Multnomah, and Washington counties.

Contact: Jeff Hawthorne, 503-823-5402, jhawthorne@racc.org

Regional Arts & Culture Council, $12,000

FY07 Arts Services Grant: To support arts services on behalf of five local government partners: manage one of the country's leading public art programs, convene discussions, produce print and electronic resource, conduct a workplace giving program that raises revenue for local arts organizations. Services will be provided to artists, art organizations and residents of Clackamas, Multnomah, and Washington Counties.

Contact: Jeff Hawthorne, 503-823-5402, jhawthorne@racc.org

Regional Arts & Culture Council, $14,000

FY06 Operating Support Grant: To support RACC's programs including the management and acquisition of high quality works of public art, advocacy and development efforts, resources for artists and arts organizations and grants to artists and arts organizations.

Contact: Jeff Hawthorne, 503-823-5402, jhawthorne@racc.org

Regional Arts & Culture Council, $13,000

FY07 Operating Support Grant: To support RACC's programs including the management and acquisition of high quality works of public art, advocacy and development efforts, resources for artists and arts organizations and grants to artists and arts organizations.

Contact: Jeff Hawthorne, 503-823-5402, jhawthorne@racc.org

Cultural Resources in District

3D Center of Art and Photography, Portland

Antique Caterpillar Machinery Museum, Portland

Beaverton Arts Commission, Beaverton

Beaverton Education Foundation, Beaverton

Blue Sky Gallery/OCPA, Portland

Caldera, Portland

Cedar Mill Community Library Association of Washington County, Portland

Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association, Portland

Choral Arts Ensemble, Portland

CoHo Productions Ltd, Portland

Columbia Symphony Orchestra, Portland

Creative Arts Community, Portland

Dixie McKeel, Portland
Education Travel & Culture, Portland
Enid Joy Mount Gallery, Keizer
Ernest A Kuck Museum Foundation for Wasco County, Portland
Friends of Chamber Music, Portland
Gay and Lesbian Archives of the Pacific Northwest, Portland
German American School of Portland, Beaverton
Hands on Portland, Portland
India Cultural Association, Portland
Institute for Culture and Ecology, Portland
Intercultural Communications Institute, Portland
Literary Arts Inc., Portland
Nigerian Community in Oregon and Southwest Washington, Portland
Northwest Business for Culture & the Arts, Portland
Northwest Children's Theater & School, Portland
Northwest China Council, Portland
Northwest Print Council, Portland
Northwest Theatre of the Deaf, Portland
Northwest Women's History Project, Portland
Old Town History Project, Portland
Oregon Cello Society, Portland
Oregon Center for Photographic Arts, Portland
Oregon Children's Foundation, Portland
Oregon College of Art & Craft, Portland
Oregon Jewish Museum, Portland
Oregon Nikkei Endowment/Oregon Nikkei Legacy Center, Portland
ORLO, Portland
Pacific Northwest Chapter, National Railway Historical Society, Portland
Pacific Northwest College of Art, Portland
Pacific Railroad Preservation Association, Portland
PHAME Academy of Fine Arts, Portland
Pittock Mansion Society, Portland
Portland Art Center, Portland
Portland Classical Chinese Garden, Portland
Portland Community Ballet, Beaverton
Portland Gay Men's Chorus, Portland
Portland Institute for Contemporary Art (PICA), Portland
Portland Old Town Arts and Culture Foundation, Portland
Portland Piano International, Portland
Portland Police Historical Society, Portland
Portland Schools Foundation First Octave Fund, Portland
Portland Society for Calligraphy, Portland
Portland Symphonic Girlchoir, Portland
Portland Yiddish Club, Portland
Pride Northwest, Portland
Rail Sensation Events, Portland
RASIKA India Arts and Culture Council, Portland
Regional Arts & Culture Council, Portland

SacredFlight, Portland
Seiha Miyabi-Kai, Portland
Start Making a Reader Today (Oregon Children's Foundation), Portland
Thai Association of Oregon Inc, Portland
Thanhouser Company Film Preservation Inc, Portland
The All-Ireland Cultural Society of Oregon, Portland
The Bill Healy Foundation, Portland
The Finnish-American Historical Society of the West, Portland
The Village Gallery of Arts, Portland
Vernon Vines, Beaverton
Vietnamese Science & Culture Society of Oregon, Portland
Vintage Trolley Inc, Portland
Washington County Historical Society, Portland
Westview Wildcat Band and Auxiliary Parents, Portland